

VALENTINA DZHEGNARADZE

Dzhegnaradze Valentina was born in Volgograd in 1982. Grown up in a family of musicians (both her parents are pianists and her grandfather was a clarinetist) he graduated with honors as “Concert pianist; Chamber music musician; Supporting musician; Teacher”. He continues his musical studies with honors earning a “Diploma PhD in Piano Concert” at the Conservatory “P. I. Tchaikovsky in Moscow in the class of Maestro Elisso Virsaladze.

He began her career as a concert pianist, winning several international piano competitions. She has performed for several Concert Society and prestigious international venues such as La Società dei concerti di Milano (Italy), Gavle Konserthus (Sweden), Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory (Russia).

In 2006 she moved to Italy where she has always dreamt of living and working and she started holding concerts and piano lessons.

In 2015 she decides to found her own school where she could teach and perform according to her musical background: shee established the International Music Academy in Bergamo. Along with the activity of the Academy direction, she continues to give concerts as a professional pianist.